2012-2013 TRACK & FIELD GENERAL INFORMATION

Scoring:

In the field events each individual will be allowed 3 preliminary trials, best 8 finishers will advance to finals for 3 more trials. Best of 6 trials will determine final position.

Individual running events/relay events—when 2 or more heats are contested in 800 meters and up or a relay event, final places for scoring will be determined by times.

Relays—10-8-6-4-2-1

Individual—7-5-4-3-2-1

Guidelines:

AN ATHLETE CAN COMPETE IN ONLY THE JV CITY OR VARSITY METRO CHAMPIONSHIPS (NOT BOTH).

In the relay events all runners should report to their stations according to the time schedule, only the lead runners need report to the Clerk of the Course. Each runner should be aware of his/her lane assignment and the time schedule, and shall be ready at the time of the Starters signal. If special instructions are necessary, runners will be instructed via the PA system.

PLEASE BE ALERT.

No event will be held up for late arrivals. It is the coach's responsibility to inform all contestants of the time schedule.

PROTEST—In the case of a mechanical or rule question, a written protest must be given to the meet referee to be acted upon. In the case of judgment calls no protest will be allowed. Do not come on the field. ONLY head coaches may make a protest.
